

MARCO POLO SUITE

- 70 square metres / 753 square feet

ESCAPE FROM THE EVERYDAY... A WORLD AWAITS, HIGH ON THE SIXTH FLOOR

Close your eyes and push open the door to enchantment as you embark on a journey with this most legendary explorer. Now take a deep breath and open your eyes on the essence of eighteenth-century style. This 70 square-metre apartment is elegantly appointed in a romantic, poetic, French style. The spirit of Marco Polo is all around, in the ship-like curve of the eaves, the swathes of silk and precious fabrics, the exotic hardwood floor, the furnishings in the most noble materials, the Oriental artefacts and figurines.

The open bathroom at the end of the Suite is a haven of delight. A Baroque claw-foot tub stands on a marquetry floor of boxwood and Portuguese pink marble. A console table is festooned with vintage arabesques.

Part Oriental palace, part luxurious Napoleonic alcove, the Marco Polo suite is exactly how the architect Nicolas Papamiltiades imagined it: "the perfect hideaway for couples in love."
